ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

ELDERLY NUTRITION PROGRAMS

Home-Delivered Meals: Persons over 60 and their spouses who are isolated or frail, and certain disabled persons under 60, may qualify for meals home-delivered up to five times a week. There is no charge, but donations are invited.

Senior Meals: Hot meals served in a social setting in over a dozen towns in the region, anywhere from daily to several times a month. Available at no charge (donations invited) to Vermonters over sixty and their spouses of any age, plus certain others.

For details about these nutrition programs, or whether there may be any transportation services to meal sites, contact:

Central Vermont Council on Aging
30 Washington Street
Barre VT 05641

Telephone: 802-479-0531 or the toll-free Vermont Senior HelpLine at 1-800-642-5119 (voice/TTY). The HelpLine will ring at the Area Agency on Aging serving the region where the call is being made.

Central Vermont Community
Action Council (CVCAC)
195 US Route 302 – Berlin
Barre, VT 05641

A wide range of programs and services for low income residents of this region is available by contacting the CVCAC offices located in:

Berlin (Barre-Montpelier Road)
479-1053 or 1-800-639-1053

Morrisville
888-7993 or 1-800-639-8710

Randolph
728-9506 or 1-800-846-9506

THE VERMONT FOODBANK

A foodbank is not the same thing as a food shelf, and there is only one foodbank in Vermont. A foodbank mobilizes large food donations from commercial and other food sources and provides it at low, per-pound rates to nonprofit organizations offering food services. The Vermont Foodbank also has certain federal food commodities available for food shelves to distribute to income-eligible households. Interested organizations should contact the Foodbank at 802-476-3341. Mail Address: PO Box 254 / South Barre, VT 05670
