

Promoting Healthy Aging
Senior HelpLine: 1-800-642-5119

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT:

Mary Hayden
Director of Development and Communications
Central Vermont Council on Aging
802-476-2739
mhayden@cvcoa.org

Art of Creative Aging: Central Vermont Council on Aging Call for Artists

Barre, VT (February 27, 2018), Central Vermont Council on Aging will showcase the creativity of older Vermonters through artwork and storytelling this May, as part of Older Americans Month.

Now in its eighth year, this exhibit complements Central Vermont Council on Aging's "Age Out Loud" fundraiser that will be held on Friday, May 4, at 7:30 at the Barre Opera House. "Age Out Loud" is an evening featuring NPR award winning comedic storytellers and Moth Slam producers, Susanne Schmidt and Kevin Gallagher, with live blues/rock music by The Brevity Thing. The artwork will be on display in the lobby of the Barre Opera House during the event and throughout the month of May. The evening will also include a silent auction.

Artists interested in participating are invited to submit digital photos of up to three pieces of artwork by April 9. CVCOA will also be accepting donations of artwork for the auction. To submit artwork for the exhibit or the silent auction, please email Jeanne Kern, jkern@cvcoa.org. For more information, you may call Jeanne 476-2671.

Central Vermont Council on Aging (CVCOA) supports older Vermonters to age with dignity and choice. For assistance, call the Senior Helpline at 1-800-642-5119. CVCOA is located at 59 N. Main Street, 2nd Floor in Barre; regional offices are located in Morrisville, Randolph, South Royalton, and Rochester. CVCOA serves 54 towns in Central Vermont.